Hicks Beach's Opinion—Bound
New York.

London, June 15.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach,

President of the Board of Trade, expresses the belief that the passage of a law by Parliament to exclude India from the singular and almost ironical fact that England is responsible for a considerable but

small amount of opium, and that it is imitated by the United States. In his opinion such a law
would do more harm to Great Britain than to
any other country.

PAID BY ENGLAND.

A bill presented to Parliament, but not likely to go through this session, calls attention to

the singular and almost ironical fact that England is responsible for a considerable but

small amount of opium, and that it is imitated by the United States. In his opinion such a law
would do more harm to Great Britain than to
any other country.

LONDON, June 15.—Commenting on the recent scandal the News says:

We venture to say that the Prince of Wales' new departure is substantially apologize to Parliament and the public for the conduct of his son, and that the public opinion will dispose of the whole matter.

The fact which the unpleasant process must have caused numerous inquiries from Jews who

that the agencies had done very little business,

the bulk of the emigrants going to the

TO-NIGHT'S FIGHT.

That Ten-Round Glove Contest Between Slavin and Kilrain.

JAKE'S FRIENDS BACKING HIM FREELY
AGAINST THE AUSTRALIAN.

Excellent Time Made at the St. Louis
Race Track Yesterday—To-Morrow's Programme—Trouble Between the Chicago Authorities and Washington Park Management—Sporting News.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The ten-round glove contest between Jake Slavin of Australia, and Kilrain of Baltimore, will be held at the Granite Association Club-house in Hoboken at 10:30 o'clock to-night. Mayor Stanton and the Police Commissioners of that city decided yesterday that they would not attempt to interrupt the affair because the directors of the club assured them that there was to be no violation of the law. Hundreds of well-known sporting men discussed the event at the up-town hotels last night and there was no doubt in the result. Slavin is the favorite. There are a great many men who are in attendance to see the fight.
Kilrain is the underdog, who has great faith in Kilrain and will back him liberally. On this contest two points are being bet on—the actual result and Kilrain's chances of lasting ten rounds.

The time of the contest is to be 10:30. Behind the scenes is to be a close contest but there is no reason in this that the Australian is to stop Kilrain in ten rounds. This is not so. They are to box rounds for a $10,000 purse, of which the loser will take one-quarter. A good many men who are in attendance to see the fight
one man or the other is stopped in the ten rounds that the contest will be declared a draw. This impression is also erroneous.

Jere Dunn, who is to referee the bout, will decide in Kilrain's favor. Kilrain is the better of the match. In case the men should both be strong and active at the finish, and there is no draw, Dunn will decide in Kilrain's favor. Dunn is a great boxer, and is to be a good referee.

THE ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY in the city printing schemes too manifest to need demonstration.

THE SUMMER will be well spent by the School Board if it gives St. Louis more and better schools at the least cost.

A NEW YORK newspaper congratulates the country that Prince RUSSELL never plays baccarat. True, but he is always telling things that he ought not to tell.

FARMER INGALLS is said to be keeping up his spirits and trying to make ends meet by selling cherries, but there is reason to believe that he would prefer to be dealing in “plums.”

THE COUNCIL may redeem itself to some extent by sitting down hard upon that piece of rascality involved in the endeavor to have the city printing contract awarded to the highest bidder.

REPUBLICANS who are anxious to down HARRISON should wait patiently until after he is nominated. There is excellent reason for believing that it will be done then without any scheming on their part.

CHIEF JUSTICE COLERIDGE has discovered that the jury of the people who make up the final verdict in all cases are not governed by the instructions of the Court. In fact they try the Court according to their instructions.

THE NEW St. Louis Congress have a great work before them in securing the proper improvement of St. Louis harbor and the Mississippi River to the mouth of the Ohio. It is worthy of all their energy and ability.

THE Prince of Wales has apologized to the people of England for shocking their moral sense, like a good boy, and now if he will promise not to do so any more, the dear, sweet, silly little Prince shall have all the cake and candy he wants, that he shall.

IT has been discovered that BARDSEY even stole a large amount of the school fund of Philadelphia. If it can be proved now that “Honest” JOHN made away with charity contributions and the Christ-mas money of a mission class, this Iago of politics would furnish the finest subject for satire in existence.

WHEN the bid of a certain disreputable local newspaper for the city printing was too low for profit it had all bids rejected upon a technical objection. Now when its bid is high enough for big profit it is endeavoring to have the contract awarded to itself on the ground of a slight blunder in the lower bid of another paper. If the Council consents to this villainous piece of robbery it will deserve the condemnation of all good citizens.

THE responsibility for the delay in closing the Keystone Bank of Philadelphia when it was hopelessly insolvent lies between Comptroller LACEY and Bank Examiner DREW. The final decision rested with Mr. LACEY, but he asserts that Mr. DREW did not fully inform him as to the true condition of the institution. Mr. DREW says he did post Mr. LACEY and therefore the truth can only be reached through a careful investigation. The guilt should be fixed upon the real offender.

A CHICAGO paper says “the honor and dignity of the State of Illinois has been sacrificed to a handful of vote-seeking politicians,” by the reduction of the Fair appropriation from $1,000,000 to $600,000, “but the State will still have an appropriate exhibit.” This is a confession that $500,000 is enough, and that the other $200,000 was plunder. The honor and dignity of Illinois are in far less danger from the vote-seeking politicians than from the predatory enterprise of Chicago and her skill in dodging State taxes and making the rural districts foot her bills.

POLITICS AND CRIME.

The statement that there is no politics in the Keystone Bank frauds requires amendment. There is no politics in crime, but in the accessory facilities there may be a great deal of politics, and there never was a case of crime in which there was more partisan politics to the square inch than in the Keystone Bank frauds and the accompanying treasury looting.

It was exclusively a Republican ring affair from start to finish. Nobody but Republican bosses high up in the management of the party machine had any hand in it, got any whack at the plunder, or held any official position in which a honest officer, uninfluenced by a party machine, might have exposed the rottenness of the looted bank and prevented the looters from sweeping $1,500,000 of State and city money into the “cracked” safes of the bank.

The State officers whose neglect of their sworn duties was equivalent to criminal connivance at Treasurer BARDSEY’s embezzlements, were products of the same party machine that put BARDSEY into office with charges of forgery and financial crookedness hanging over him. So also were the Federal officials who assisted: Assistant United States Treasurer NETTLETON, who was getting favors from one of the looted banks and trying to secure Federal relationships for its now indicted cashier; Postmaster-General WANAMAKER, who held a big block of the Keystone’s fraudulently issued stock and exerted his influence to the last possible moment to delay the closing of the bank by the Comptroller of the Currency; the Comptroller himself, Bank Examiner DREW and United States District Attorney READ, who are now trying to lay on each other the responsibility for official laches in which they are involved to an extent that savors of conspiracy—all were co-partners in the management of the same party machine—all bound together by the mutual indebtedness and the mutual co-operation of joint political hunt for promotion and profit.

We are not saying that Democrats similarly situated would have been any better. We say only that, if the official positions held by them had been divided between members of antagonistic parties, the chances that the knavery would not have been attempted or would have been exposed and checked before so much money was stolen. The problem of keeping politics out of crime and crime out of politics will be solved when the people fully realize the danger of giving any party machine control of all the offices.

The civil service reformer’s idea of making appointments depend on fitness instead of party pull, and tenure of office depend on faithful and efficient public service rather than on party favor or interest, is the remedy suggested by this Philadelphia, Washington and Harrisburg scandal.

NO PUBLIC work is of greater importance than that of enhancing the efficiency and extending the benefits of the public school system and in devising plans to this end the School Board is undoubtedly meeting the object for which it was established. But whether this summer’s work shall be notable for good or ill results depends entirely upon the manner in which it is done. Through a wise and practical adaptation of the means to the proper purposes of the public schools and the economical administration of the work the schools may be vastly improved and the people greatly benefited, but on the other hand the work of the board affords opportunity for robbery, ignorance and folly which may largely nullify its possible good effects. We indulge the hope that the board will rise to a full sense of its responsibilities as the guardian of the most valuable institution of the people of this city.

LACEY’s statement puts the Administration in a bad fix. It shows that WANAMAKER’s very treacherous memory played him a bad trick when he wrote those denials. Telegrams and notes to Comptroller LACEY, signed by JOHN WANAMAKER and dated so recently as April, make us wonder how he could deliberately write and publish such denials as he put forth a few weeks later. But the Lacey statement puts every official mentioned in it, including LACEY himself, far outside the pale of justification. The best either of them can do now is to imitate the Prince of Wales’ confession to the House of Commons that he sees and regrets his error and hopes to lead a more correct life in the future.

MUCH pity has been expressed for GORDON-CUMMING’s young wife because she married a man who is ostracized from British “high society,” but from several standpoints there is good cause for the true condition of the institution. Mr. DREW says he did post Mr. LACEY and therefore the truth can only be reached through a careful investigation. The guilt should be fixed upon the real offender.

Justice Brewer Opens the New United States Court of Appeals.

AN IMPOSING CEREMONY IN THE FEDERAL BUILDING TO-DAY.

The Supreme Bench Associate Justice and Judges Caldwell and Thayer Preside at the Organization of a New Court—A Notable Legal Gathering—The Proceedings.

Shortly before noon to-day the beautiful and imposing apartment on the third floor of the Custom-house building, known heretofore as the United States District Court-room, cast its identity in that connection forever. It became the United States Court of Appeals room, and the organization of such a court, standing, as it does, in legal dignity next to the United States Supreme Court, was also a part of the all the ceremony and impressiveness proper to such an occasion.

For the first time in the history of court ceremonial in the United States Supreme Court presided over by the Supreme Bench Associate Justice and Judges Caldwell and Thayer Preside at the Organization of a New Court—A Notable Legal Gathering—The Proceedings.

United States Circuit Clerk of the United States District Court of Judge of the Judicial District, and under the direction of the new court, presided over by the Supreme Bench Associate Justice and Judges Caldwell and Thayer Preside at the Organization of a New Court—A Notable Legal Gathering—The Proceedings.

Great Handicap Run at Sheep's Head Bay To-Day.

SANDS OF PEOPLE TURN OUT TO WITNESS THE RACE.

Made the Strongest Favorite That Started in the Event—Tea Tray is Well Backed in the Pools—The Track Dry and Fast—Scenes at the Race.

UPPER BAY, June 16.—Long before to-day coaches and carriages by the score began to come through the gates and to good positions in the field. With aometer well on its way toward the city this beautiful track the sea was never more appreciated. A good, stiff breeze blew over the track, the intense heat being at least tolerable. By the best positions in the stands and did were occupied, and the club-house crowded with excited horsemen. The handicap, the second racing event year, was the theme of all.

HE WILL NOT RESIGN.

Gen. Noble's Explanation of the Circumstances Which Led to False Rumors.

When Gen. Noble was in Hot Springs he conversed freely with a friend on the report that he intended to resign his Cabinet portfolio. He said among other things that his breaking-up housekeeping in Washington simply meant that the place was to be cleaned and renovated from top to bottom.

At the conclusion of the lease he and his residence in this city, he said that he had dissolved the agreement with Mr. Lucas at that gentleman's request.

He could, he said, make a more attractive arrangement than his letting of his property. "It might," he said, "be to my interest and advantage to resign, but I do not propose to do anything of the kind. I have worked hard there, and have to work hard, in order to earn money. That is why I am taking this trip." He spoke in such a positive manner as to leave no doubt whatever as to his determination to remain with the administration as long as it was in power.

His resignation, William Long, he said, were of the most cordial kind. After a brief stay in Washington, Gen. Noble will go to Yale on the 28th to deliver an address at the commencement. It will be the fortieth anniversary of his graduation from that institution.
